

Certificate of Successful Partnership

On 20 and 21 November 2003 the Siemens ICN Supplier meeting took place in Munich.

Topmanager of the 50 world-wide most important suppliers of the Siemens ICN Department (Information and Communication network) were present. The goal of the meeting was to strengthen the strategic partnerships on the basis of the presented roadmaps and to redefine the design to cost measures for future co-operation.

Due to a long lasting partnership with Siemens ICN also PPC Electronic AG was invited to this important meeting and received the „Certificate OF Successful Partnership“.

This award is the result of a trusting and successful co-operation of both enterprises and an incentive for PPC Electronic AG to further improve its performance.
